1. Ted, you're on your way with structure and people to help you. Accelerate and slow not back up. Use your training, be strategic, and move forward in timidity-smashing freedom—radically bold in beseeching people to help you and listen and contribute and participate. Birth forth, birth forth in fullness and freedom which I have provided—which you have attained through righteousness, consecration and tenacity.

2. Move forward and fear failure not, fear making a mistake not, fear only being timid and slow and unbelieving—believe and see and move forward in the prophetic acts which bring forth that prophesied and foretold and placed in your bosom for years, in year past, but never dulled, to now be fanned into the flame by My, and with My, Holy Spirit.

3. Oh Ted, joining, combining, de-convoluting you are the thoughts and emotions of many who have sought Me and on sidelines sat, pondering, wondering how they can possibly fit, or reconcile so much of what they have seen and heard and yet read in My scriptures.

4. Oh joy, oh joy of joys for the freedomized hearts you will propel in weeks of freedom, gathering My Mine—My ready—for propulsion into My design exponential-ized.

5. Oh graduates are many and interconnected with value systems of Me, imprinted indelibly at My knee, and with freedom-makers who deliver the weak to become strong in My presence—My body strengthening and understanding itself—its role—and its various parts, and what tears at it, and why it suffers.

6. Warrior-izing you are My timid who know there's more and are willing to stand up to see if I am in this and if there is lasting value and creativity to be cultured and cultivated and capitalized on—to walk in practical ways of honor and scholarship and gently pulling those ready into maturity.

7. Scholarship, scholarship, scholarship, Ted, increase the scholarship, the writing, the excellence in My body and let them know My value systems of My heart that I want to reveal in intimate times of intimacy with Me, so that I can elevate the character of consecrated scholars who know their roles, and recognize My body and the needs in My body, and are not afraid to speak when I speak, nor afraid to be silent when I'm silent, who know their role and walk in the power, the power, the immense power to transmit Me—with Me being fully Me in them.

8. Oh, each can do, become, effect so much more—push their limits Ted, in scholarship and intimacy with Me—fearfully fearing not—knowing what to fear and what to trample on.

9. I am arising scholarship—freedomized people of excellence in immense skill who understand their role and identity and walk in intimacy with Me, and enjoy fulfilling relationships of power and deep friendships.

10. Accountable—make each one—and let the wimps whimper and arise or sit sidelined until they are ready.

11. Accountable, responsible, consecrated, innovating through Me and the freedom which I now display openly—unveiled—to My body who will walk out of the constricting paradigms of the past.

12. Accelerate, ask, proclaim with intensity and enthusiasm and unshielded be from criticism—except for Me. I am your shield and buckler and I arise you to arise My schools to arise My Mine into glorious glories of penmanship of Me—craftsmanship of Me—composing Me on tablets digital and stone and flesh and hearts of all—open to Me.

13. Be not afraid, accelerate, write, ask, penetrate barriers-thought of, but in reality are mists which dim sight. Clearly, clearly, forward march and enjoy the time, the friends, the helpers, the students, and all who arise now—stepping forward ever so gently—to help you.

14. I love you—proceed.
On paper—all your plans and schedules and master plan for My heart upon yours.

15. Help, help, help comes in the form of every form—and all you need is provided—extensively, abounding.

16. Today you have more details and specifics and schedule begins on notes of Me, with Me this morning. Move forward and integrate My body with My body and isolate none—no lone rangers—synergistic power together in communion, exchanging keys and understanding fully their role—their roots, their beginning in Me before time. I am, I come, I call, and I complete.

17. Bringing into the very first stage of completion you are My schools and attendees—and remarkably enjoying those who come to teach, to help, to administrate details and coordinate the networks of schools of synergy I now proclaim, in Me, of Me, for My Mine, for Me.

18. I love you dearly. I deeply thank you and all who stand to participate in this new venture of ventures—birthing adventures for multitudes in My big world.

19. Set them free, let them fly, unfettered, high above wings thought of, in Me, in Me, for Me, for us, altogether—one.

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.
